

NEW YORK STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY

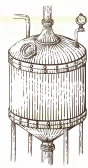

COLONIAL CRAFTSMANSHIP AND NEW-AGE TECHNIQUES

With its radiant topaz hue and the scent left in the air, ALTON BOURBON immediately presents itself as a pleasant and stimulating experience. Elegantly floral while complacently freezing, the aromas of vanilla, caramel, fondant, and coconut beckon the nose, followed by a smoky, complex permeation of the palate that results in a clean, refined, and rich full finish. Predominantly corn with a touch of rye and serious aging behind it, ALTON BOURBON binds together quintessential colonial craftsmanship with the best techniques in new age distillation deserving the redefinition of American Whiskey while innovating it to a high level of quality.

INNOVATION & SUSTAINABILITY

The character of all the Alton's whiskeys lies in the making of the spirit, from the quality of the grains to the spectacular water of the estate, to the final distillation in our small copper stills, from which only the heart is kept for maturation in white American oak casks. Together with the inspiration drawn from the stunning natural surroundings, these are the special factors which contribute to The Alton's distinctive whiskey personality.
